and

The Scholarship Recipient

The Scholarship is worth $500 towards tuition for the September 2019-June 2020 training.

The Scholarship has no monetary value and is not transferable to another training.

The Scholarship Recipient is responsible for the remaining tuition of $2500 (including tax) to be paid on or before the beginning of the course (September 28th, 2019.) As well as mandatory books for the course (approximately $40).

The Scholarship Recipient will be responsible for the following duties for the duration of the training:

1. Opening and Closing the Yoga Studio

This requires the Scholarship Recipient to be at the location 20 minutes earlier and later.

Opening duties include:

- a. Turning on the lights
- b. Lighting incense & creating a serene space
- c. Getting materials ready for the instructors
- d. Locking the door once all the students have arrived

Closing Duties (Sundays only) Include:

- a. Sweep Yoga Studio Floor
- b. Mop the yoga studio floor
- c. Empty the garbage can and replace the bag if necessary
- d. Fold the blankets neatly and tidy props
- e. Check to see if the plants need to be watered
- f. Check the heat
- g. Lock the door

2. Taking Photos/Videos

This requires the Scholarship Recipient to take photos and videos of the students and instructors every session. The camera will be provided.

If the Scholarship Recipient does not fulfill the duties as outlined above and wishes to stay in the training, the Scholarship Recipient will be responsible for paying $500 to Maritime Yoga College.

In the event the Maritime Yoga College does not hold a 200-hour Yoga Teacher Training beginning September 28th, 2019, the Scholarship Recipient will be able to transfer their $500 scholarship to a future training.
